A Bit About Me:

I was born in California and raised in the Middle East before moving to Minnesota, where I completed my undergraduate studies and pharmacy education. My passion for managed care has driven my academic pursuits and professional development, inspiring me to pursue a residency to explore the diverse opportunities in this field. In my free time, I enjoy spending quality time with family and friends, traveling, and exploring new places. I am excited about the opportunity to complete my residency at Priority Health, which will equip me with valuable skills and experiences that will foster my personal and professional growth.
