

Notice of Nondiscrimination

This Notice describes our nondiscrimination policy, availability of free language assistance, auxiliary aids and services and filing a grievance.

Discrimination is against the law

Priority Health complies with applicable civil rights laws and does not discriminate, exclude people, or treat them differently on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, national origin, age, HIV status, marital status, sex (as defined by law and Priority Health policy), sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, religion, socioeconomic status or source of payment for service, height, weight, veteran status, association or any other protected characteristic based on federal, state or local law.

Availability of free language assistance and auxiliary aids and services

Priority Health provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, which may include:

- Qualified interpreters.
- Information written in other languages.

Priority Health provides people with disabilities reasonable modifications and free appropriate auxiliary aids and services to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters.
- Written information in other formats (e.g. large print, audio, accessible electronic).

If you need reasonable modifications, appropriate auxiliary aids and services or language assistance services, visit priorityhealth.com/contact-us.

Filing a grievance

If you believe that Priority Health has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, national origin, age, HIV status, marital status, sex (as defined by law and Priority Health policy), sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, religion, socioeconomic status or source of payment for service, height, weight, veteran status, association or any other protected characteristic based on federal, state, or local law, you can file a grievance in person or by mail, phone, fax or email. The Section 1557 Civil Rights Coordinator can answer questions and help file a grievance by:
