Subject: [Test_3]:Welcome back to prism 101; let's learn how to enroll providers

What you need to know about provider enrollment, change requests and status tracking

Before a provider can see patients and submit claims for services, they must be enrolled – either individually or through a provider organization. Enrollment includes credentialing and contracting. If you're a provider or you enroll providers, we'll show you how the process works and offer tips to make it even easier.

Before you get started in prism

- ✓ Make sure your provider's Council for Affordable Health Care \(CAQH\) profile is up to date. All providers must be registered with CAQH to enroll with us.
- ✓ Visit our website to review the credentialing criteria for your provider type/specialty. Review the criteria and keep in mind missing documentation or expired CAQH profiles will delay your enrollment.

LOGIN TO PRISM

Just double checking

Are you enrolling under the right group? Look at the upper right corner of your prism dashboard to verify you're submitting your request under the correct group/facility.

Super important! Make sure your enrollment isn't delayed.

Missing information and/or documentation will cause enrollment delays. It's important to review the criteria for your provider type to know which documents we need for your enrollment request.

Here's the most commonly missed items on enrollment requests:

- Contracts (if applicable)
- Collaborating physician name and NPI on the application
- Medicaid disclosure form completed in the application
- Professional and general liability attachments

Need to update provider information? Easy peasy.

If a provider is already enrolled but needs their information updated, use prism to submit changes. Click Enrollments & Changes from the navigation menu, choose Change Individual Provider or Organization and follow the prompts to submit your provider changes.

Can I get a status please?

You can view the progress of your enrollment or change request from start to finish by selecting Enrollments & Changes from the navigation menu. The next screen will display all the requests you've submitted. Click the Inquiry ID to view the status of your request.
